Business highlights:

- Very easy to run business suitable for a one-person operation
- All signs are well maintained and are remotely controlled once securely installed, so all sign messages can be changed without the need for a site visit
- Specialising in business, event advertising and some traffic management, however this will depend on availability
- Currently showing a respectable profit of over $125,000 for an owner operated business
- Plant and Equipment value circa $280,000

Significant opportunities exist for this business in traffic management as there is huge demand in this industry, however this will require a new owner to have additional mobile electronic message boards on hand, as their main priority is servicing their business and event management customers.

Further growth opportunities also exist in expanding the service area which can be done with additional personnel.

This business could also be of interest to existing service providers in a similar industry as it can easily be integrated.
