Established Sustainability Consultancy for Sale – Servicing the Construction Industry

An exceptional opportunity to acquire a respected and well-established sustainability consultancy providing compliance documentation and advisory services to the residential and commercial construction sectors.

Operating for over 15 years, this business delivers essential reports such as NatHERS energy ratings, BASIX, Section J, BESS, SMP, and other ESD (Environmentally Sustainable Design) assessments. These services are critical for planning approvals, building permits, and meeting environmental regulations across Victoria and Australia wide.

Key Highlights:

- Strong brand and reputation for technical accuracy, reliability, and professional service
- Well-defined systems, templates, and workflows enabling efficient delivery and scalability
- Longstanding relationships with builders, architects, developers, and consultants
- Low overheads with remote-friendly operations and minimal fixed costs
- Consistent revenue with opportunity for growth through additional services or interstate expansion

Target Market & Growth Potential: This business is ideal for engineering firms, architectural practices, or environmental consultants looking to integrate sustainability reporting into their service offering. With increasing demand for energy-efficient and environmentally compliant
