Oakleighs Iconic Florist Nursery Business for Sale SV1585

Businesses like this don't come to market often.

Rooted in the heart of Oakleigh this extraordinary floral business has been serving the community from early 1940s. Its name is synonymous with flowers in Melbourne's south-east, and its reputation has been built not through advertising, but through generations of trust, quality, and genuine community connection.

The current owner has dedicated over 35 years to this business; first as an employee for 10 years learning the craft, then as the owner carrying the legacy forward. Now, for the first time in two and a half decades, the opportunity to take the reins of one of Melbourne's most beloved retail institutions has arrived.

This is not simply a florist shop. It is a multi-faceted lifestyle and retail business with several deeply established income streams:
